the exotic nuances of Morocco, the tastes of Turkey and the rhythms of the Middle East have come together at Leila, the restaurant-of-the-moment in downtown West Palm Beach.

Leila has highly stylized, contemporary interiors, splashed in small doses with the romance of Arabia, and garden-inspired outdoor areas. Both offer an intimate dining space in which to enjoy the mezze (bite-sized foods). After dinner, the lights dim, a belly dancer sways to exotic rhythms and the arguileh (water pipe) makes its way to the table. Puffing at the fruit-flavored tobacco while sipping a cup of thick Turkish coffee will make you think you've landed on the pages of Arabian Nights. (561-659-7373, www.leilawpb.com)
